Online Money Making Opportunities For Students In Nigeria 2019

Forget it!

Many sites on the web today may tell or even show you where to earn money online as a student freely without having to spend anything. I tell you; that's not true and maybe they want to lure you to some scam sites I believe you don't want to be. The only way to earn from the internet without spending a dime is to promote or offer services you render to people.

I don't only teach how to earn from the internet or anywhere,

I also give tips to save you from being scammed while mining cash.

Now let me tell you the real OT

- No one will create a business to be dashing out free money online.
- Every blog/website owner has this basic aim of making profit and not loss.
- If it's not to make profit online via blogging, then we would only have maximum 5,000 bloggers in Nigeria.
- If you must make money online as a student, you need to have a basic skill
- Making money online in Nigeria needs support of an expert (blind men don't work in forest)

Surely clues mentioned above would guide you through in knowing a bit about the Internet in knowing how you can make money while avoiding to be scammed online in Nigeria as a student. Well, just as mentioned above, it's just an OT (orientation/hint) to guide you in taking decisions online.

How to Make Money Online in Nigeria as a Student 2019

If it's not possible to make money online in Nigeria for free; then surely there should be a way of earning money online legitimately without having to scam anyone and I will show you how to earn money online as a student doing some simple jobs with your phone or PC.

So here are top ways on how to make money online as a student in Nigeria that still works

1. Blogging

Believe me, blogging for live is the beginning of wisdom and basic way of earning money online as a student legitimately without any head ache. Blogging gives you a youth reading this to know more about how living online on the web really is.

I remember when I started blogging at first running Music Download niche in school, I was more like Mark Zugerberg of Facebook.Com then.

Not just that. I was able to raise funds for myself in no time because I have upcoming artist that are willing to promote their songs on my site to give me few bucks.

Well that's just part of what you would get if you venture into blogging in the early age. Thou blogging do not raise quick cash as it is a legit way of earning from the internet. I can help you become a blogger of your choice as a student with full support via WhatsApp.

2. Selling Past Question & Answers Online

This is a cool way of making huge profit on the internet as a student in Nigeria. This method requires no technical but applied skill in running it. You as a student in the University/Polytechnic can sell past question papers to outsiders who are preparing to sit for your school examination.

Believe me, this method of earning online as a Nigerian student is more effective than you may be thinking. Go to Facebook groups related to your school, publish a post about what you have to offer in a constructive way then relax for some minutes to see the magic in your inbox.

You can sell UTME past question & answer to Jamb candidates sitting for the forth coming exams, hand used hand-out to new students via social media & online marketing.

3. Affiliate Marketing

This on the other hand is more like a branch of blogging because all income you earn being an affiliate comes out from blog a real blogger builds.

I have tested lots of affiliate programs in Nigeria and I've seen hundreds of students that earns lots of cash via affiliate sites so I will tell you; Affiliate marketing is indeed one of the best way to make money online in Nigeria as a student.

For example, we have lots of affiliate programs in Nigeria namely; the good, the bad, and the ugly. Believe me, not all affiliate programs are really genuine, that was how CashAwoof came and everyone rushed it. I recommend you always seek for advice before jumping into any affiliate program so as to stay off from being scammed.

3. Taking Surveys

Taking surveys with the aim of earning as a student is cool but sometimes not. Well that's not a final end for you or it means you can't make money online in Nigeria as a student while taking survey on sites that claim to pay you for your time.

See what survey is if you don't mind. Thou Nigerian survey sites normally used to be categorized as scam sites. I won't just want you to end there like this, I'll show you list of top legit survey sites you can make use of as a student in filling your account

You won't believe I know survey sites then as scam and Ponzi until I cashed out from one last year that I came to believe some real once still exist.

4. Start Mini Importation Business from School

You might just be hearing about Mini Importation the first time I know. Well, Mini importation/drop shipping business is simply a way of buying goods from outside Nigeria at cheap rate, importing them to you country and selling them at higher rate.

This is a very lucrative and cool way to make money online in Nigeria as a student, graduate, drop-out or even someone who want to make money online without much stress.

Though this business requires some capital to start but I believe you can afford it. You can get my training + videos on how to buy goods from China at $3, importing them here in Nigeria, and sell them for $12 each without stress for just N10,000.

5. Blog Design/Creation

Blog creation and web design isn't the coolest way of making money as a student but It still would work if you can stabilize your reading and programming time since programing and web design is never an easy task.

Keep calm.

That wasn't meant to make you feel as if you can't make money online in Nigeria as a student doing blog design and other cool online stuff related to programming. Am only trying to familiarize you more to what you will get to know sooner or later when you join the team. I know some Site builders/developers who are still in the university and also doing well with their studies than some die hard addict.

That's to say you it's a sure thing to make money online in Nigeria as a student doing blog creation and site development stuff online.

5. Social Media Marketing

Making money as a Nigeria student in the University or Secondary school has never been easier than using social media marketing. With the aid of social media, many Nigerian students can promote their services and other crucial offers they have online with the aim of making money.

Nigerian Students who are into affiliate marketing programs like Uplift NNU e.t.c. can testify the goodness of social media marketing in their daily life.

I know lots of drop-out that uses social media (a place of fun) as their basic source of income in Nigeria today turning it into a real money making opportunity to them so I believe you can even do more if you like.

6. Service Promotion

This is another cool way of making money online as a student in Nigeria.

Nigerian youths, most especially the student can make money online promoting custom service they offer to people around them online.

When talking about “Custom Service”, we mean services or knowledge you have or know how to do and you think it’s worth paying for. It might be online tutorship on certain course, sharing basic skill you have to people while they pay you a certain fee.

You can start making use of Zoom Cloud Meeting app for android to see how you can promote your skill and earn from it online tutoring people live from the Android app.

7. Be a Cartoonist Doing Photoshop In school

This is no doubt the coolest way of making money online as a Nigerian student and am sure you will love this one.

As a Nigerian student/youths, you don’t have to underestimate some valuable resource you have instead use it the right way to fund your account at ease. Doing cartoon imagery and other Photoshop effect is another cool way of making money in Nigeria as a student.

I know some students making it online with their phones and PC doing Photoshop work while they get paid for their work done so why can’t you also earn money online doing photo editing business? Just get some Photoshop studio applications ready then contact anyone graphic designer you know to assist you.

Other Working Method to Earn Money In Nigeria as a Student

Remember what I mentioned earlier? If the solution to your problem isn’t listed here then it means it either not working any longer, a scam method of earning online as a student, or just one that is not lucrative enough to be listed here.
